

Latin I Course Syllabus 2022-2023

Course Textbook: Jenney's First Year Latin, (1st half of text) Allyn and Bacon, Inc., 1987

Readings from the Proper of the Mass (various)
Texts from the Latin Fathers of the Church (various) Liturgical Texts and Latin Hymns and Poems (various)

Course Objectives:

- To provide students with a greater understanding of the nature and structure of language by teaching them Latin forms, syntax, and vocabulary.
- To expand students' knowledge of English vocabulary, improving their use of the English language
- To give students the foundation in Latin necessary to improve their understanding of liturgical prayers and the Latin writings of prominent historians and Catholic authors.

1st Quarter:

Nouns – First and Second Declensions
Verbs – First Conjugation Active, Present System (Present, Imperfect, Future)
Agreement of Verbs
Special Use of Accusatives – Place to which
Dative of Indirect Object
Special Uses of Ablatives – Place where, Place from which Adjectives – Agreement, use as substantives
Quarter Review and Test

2nd Quarter:

Nouns-Third Declension, including i-stem nouns; Vocatives
Verbs – First Conjugation Active, Perfect System (Perfect, Pluperfect, Future Perfect)
Principal Parts of Verbs
Imperatives
Interrogative Particles
Special Use of Ablatives – Manner
Semester Review and Exam

3rd Quarter:

Nouns – Appositives
Verbs – First Conjugation Passive, all tenses; Second Conjugation, Third Conjugation, Third Conjugation i-stems, Active and Passive, all tenses
Numerals
Objective Genitive
Special Uses of Ablatives – Accompaniment, Personal Agent, Separation
Adjectives of the Third Declension
Quarter Review and Test

4th Quarter:

Nouns – Fourth and Fifth Declensions
Pronouns – Demonstrative, Personal, Relative, Interrogative
Verbs – Fourth Conjugation
Partitive Genitive
Special Uses of Accusatives – Extent of space, duration of time
Special Use of Ablatives – Time
Interrogative Adjectives
Adverbs
Infinitives
Final Review and Exam